REDS ARE TAKING OVER ZIONISTS DIRECTING REIGN OF TERROR IN U.S.

St. Augustine, Fla., June 18, N.Y. News—
"Civil rights demonstrators, including a group of rabbis, staged a praying and singing demonstration at a white motel today that developed into a shoving melee and a "jump-in" at a swimming pool . . . Police hauled off 45 demonstrators, including 14 members of the Jewish Reform faith, part of a group who flew here from Atlantic City Tuesday . . . The Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth of Birmingham, Ala., an aid to integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was among those hauled away . . . King watched from a motel across the street."

The National Jewish Post & Opinion June 26, 1964 reported the following:

"The well-publicized appearance of 16 (?) Reform rabbis last week in an attempt to integrate a St. Augustine motel swimming pool was only a forerunner of what can be expected. Rabbi Samuel Soskin, chairman of the Commission of Justice and Peace of the Central Conference of American Rabbis (Reform), said that he had 175 volunteers ready for action. He stated that several of the rabbis had personally contacted . . . King, James Farmer, Roy Wilkins and others—and told them they were ready to go wherever requested . . . The 16 Reform rabbis who were arrested in last week's St. Augustine demonstration had been rallied . . . at the group's convention (Atlantic City, N.J.) . . . King had called the convention asking for aid."

The American (Jewish) Examiner, June 25, 1964, had this additional information:

"The Department of Justice has notified Senator Jacob K. Javits, New York Republican, that federal agents have opened a full preliminary investigation of the arrest of 15 (?) rabbis in St. Augustine, Fla. Sen. Javits requested federal intercession last weekend upon hearing of the mass arrest of the rabbis."

Whether or not there were 14, 15, or 16 Jewish rabbis involved in demonstrations at St. Augustine is immaterial. What is important to remember is that Martin Luther King telephoned for these rabbis to come and demonstrate—then watched from a motel across the street while they were being arrested. This, in turn, gave Senator Jake Javits (N.Y.) an opportunity to ask for and receive federal intervention, which was the whole idea to begin with.

In an effort to prevent any further violence, Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida had banned night demonstrations. This act caused the Governor to be brought before a Federal Judge at Jacksonville to show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

The judge had held a similar ban, imposed by St. Augustine police, was a violation of freedom of speech and assembly. King was an observer at the hearing. Gov. Bryant also said he was considering banning all demonstrations both day and night. This action would guarantee to incur the wrath of the Federal authorities.

President Johnson (Christian front), Jake Javits (Zionist manipulator) and M. L. King (Negro pawn)—leaders in the anti-American, unconstitutional so-called Civil Rights Bill.

The whole world has been saturated with the story of the 3 missing civil rights workers in Mississippi. The Department of Justice ordered the F.B.I. to begin searching for them (6/23/64, N.Y. Journal American). Justice Department spokesman, Edwin Guthman (Jew), seems to be handling all inquiries regarding the two missing New York Jews and the Mississippi negro. James Farmer, national director of CORE, called for an air and ground search by the Meridian Naval Air Station. President Johnson complied with his wishes (instructions) and sent 200 sailors (stepped up to 400 later) and 8 helicopters into the search on June 25 (N.Y. News, 6/26/64).

William Kunstler (Jew), attorney for King, told the Hackensack, N.J. Record (6/22/64) that if the Attorney General (Bobby K.) doesn't satisfy their demands, they will conduct a sit-in at his office.

On June 24, President Johnson sent former CIA Chief Allen Dulles (presently of the Warren Commission) into Mississippi for conferences with Gov. Paul Johnson, (6/25/64). Gov. Johnson had offered the assistance of the Mississippi National Guard (over 12,000 men) to join in the search, but was turned down. The best Allen Dulles could come up with was to recommend to Pres. Johnson on June 26, that he send more F.B.I. men to Mississippi "to control and prosecute terroristic activities" against civil rights workers there (N.Y. News, 6/27/64).

At Washington, D.C., the NAACP Convention called upon federal authorities to take over the Mississippi state government (N.Y. News, 6/27/64). The (Communist) Worker on June 28, 1964 screamed "Halt the Terror in Mississippi" across its front page.

The question that needs answering now is where are these invaders of Mississippi coming from, who is financing them, and most important, just who is giving them their specialized training???

The Hackensack, N.J. Record of June 23, reported that "a summer invasion of Mississ-sippi by nearly 1,000 civil rights workers is under way, despite warnings from that Southern State that it won't tolerate outside interference in its affairs . . . Conceived by the Council of Federated Organizations, known as C.O.F.O., in Jackson, Miss., the project is being directed on the scene by 29 year-old Robert Moses, a Negro and former New Yorker who holds a degree from Harvard. Money comes from the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee, the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Martin Luther King's Christian Leadership Conference . . . Participants attend week-long orientation courses at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio." This orientation program is sponsored by the National Council of Churches' commission on religion and race (6/19/1964 Record).

The American Jewish Committee has provided research facilities for Yale Divinity School. It was Yale University which gave Martin Luther King an honorary degree in June after he was released from a St. Augustine jail.

"Myles Horton, head of the Highlander Center, Knoxville, Tenn. . . is helping the orientation program set up by the National Council of Churches here on the campus of Western College for Women . . . his enemies have denounced him as a communist and an un-American subversive . . . His adult education school was driven out of Monteagle, Tenn., by outraged local residents to its present Knoxville location in 1961 . . . Rosa Parks, the woman who started the Montgomery, Ala. bus boycott, is one of the hundreds of actionists that have passed through Horton's school . . . Highlander is where . . . 'We Shall Overcome' was composed." (Hackensack, N.J. Record, 6/17/64).

Myles Horton was identified as a former board member of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (cited 3/29/44 & 6/12/47 as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities). A witness who had been a member of the Communist Party testified that when he was Tennessee district organizer of the Communist Party he made arrangements with Myles Horton and others for the communist Daily Worker to be sent regularly to the Highlander Folk School, and for a communist student to go to the Highlander Folk School to recruit students into the Communist Party. The witness further testified that the Highlander Folk School cooperated closely with the Communist Party, and that when he asked Myles Horton to become a member of the Communist Party, Horton replied, "I am doing you just as much good now as I would if I were a member of the Communist Party. I am often asked if I am a Communist Party member and I always say 'no.' I feel much safer in having no fear that evidence might be uncovered to link me with the Communist Party, and therefore I prefer not to become a member of the Communist Party." (Hearings before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, March 18, 19 and 20, 1954).
